

JANUARY 10, 1833.

Read twice, and ordered to be engrossed, and read a third time to-morrow.

Mr. WICKLIFFE, from the Committee on the Public Lands, reported the following bill:

A BILL

To authorize the President of the United States to change the locations of the Land Offices in the United States.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That
3 when any land office is now, or shall hereafter, be located out-
4 side of the boundaries of the land district to which it shall
5 belong, the President of the United States shall cause the 6 same to be removed and located at some convenient place in
7 said land district.

1 SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the President
2 of the United States shall have power, and he is hereby re-
3 quired, to change the location of any of the land offices within 4 any of the land districts, from time to time, whenever, in his
5 opinion, the public interest, and the convenience of the citi-
6 zens resident in said districts, shall require the same.